

A decorative illustration of a tea set, including a teapot, a pitcher, a teacup on a saucer, and a teapot, all in a dark brown color. The items are arranged around the central text, with a thin black line connecting them. There are also several stylized flowers and leaves scattered throughout the background.

The Inclusion Team invite all parents & carers to our next

Coffee Morning

Our visitor will be from the
Autism Specialist
Teaching Service

Come along and find out about how to support children with Autism and anxiety. There is opportunity to ask questions.

Stay for a 'cuppa and cake' with the Inclusion Team
(Learning Mentors and Inclusion Manager/SENCo).

Crèche available for pre-school-aged siblings

Wednesday 9th January
9am - 11am

Inclusion Team's 2018-2019 coffee morning themes:

Wed 26th September - How can Family Voice help families? (Claudia Dias)

Wed 28th November - Child well-being & mental health (Project 4 Schools)

Wed 9th January - Autism & anxiety (Clare Ferguson - Advisory Teacher)

Wed 27th Feb - Struggling with words/vocab? (Helen Joslin, S&L Therapist)

Wed 24th April - Reading & spelling for children who struggle (Alex West)

Wed 26th June - Toileting/Bed-Wetting (Cressy Moule, School Nurse)

For more information, email the school:
office@williamlaw.peterborough.sch.uk