

Create a survival guide for someone on a desert island.

Create a life-jacket which must be water proof. You will be awarded house points for creativity.

Create a model of a cabin from the Titanic. You could use a shoebox or cereal box.

Write a haiku entitled: "The Island"

Create a topographical model of a desert island. Be as creative as you like with the materials you choose e.g. papier mache, cake etc

Research how you can change dirty water in to clean water, using scientific processes. Document your investigation.

Year 5 Homework Menu

Build a full-sized shelter out of natural / eco-friendly materials and bring in a photograph to show the class. The shelter must house 3 people and be waterproof.

Research a famous explorer or navigator and write a report about them e.g. Ellen MacArthur.

If you were stranded on a desert island and can only take 10 items with you. Create a hamper with these items and explain the reasons why you chose them.

Hide some "treasure" in your house, create a treasure hunt and draw a map to scale (including the correct compass bearings) and get your family to try and find it.