

Research the brutal assassination of John F. Kennedy: What was it, when did it happen? Was the government responsible?

The 1960s was an exciting time of new inventions.

Research and choose one of the inventions - create a 1960s inspired advert to persuade people to buy it.

England won the Football World Cup in 1966.

Create a news report on the momentous occasion. You could write a newspaper article, record an audio radio segment or film a video news report.

The 1960s saw the first successful mission to the moon.

Research the Apollo 11 spaceflight. Why was it so important? How did they get to the moon? What did they do on the moon? Who was involved? What role did women play?

Year 6 Summer homework

The swinging sixties was an interesting decade full of change, new discoveries and controversy! Can you create a timeline of historical events?

As music was an important part of the 1960's can you create a 1960's album cover.