AUTUMN ISSUE 2021

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Sadly, due to current restrictions and the possibility of further restrictions into the winter, both the School and School Association have decided not to hold our Christmas Bazaar this December. We know how disappointing this is for everyone as it's such a wonderful evening, but we must take everyone's safety into account.

To replace the bazaar this year, we have come up with some fabulous in school events that the children will enjoy, whilst still fundraising.

We hope you will join us in supporting these activities.

UPCOMING EVENTS

We have some in-school Christmas events that are being planned, including:

Pringle Pot Decorating Competition
Class Penny Challenge
Christmas Movie Afternoon
Winter Wear Dress Down Day

More details to follow

thank you!

Thank you to everyone who joined in the American Dress Up Day alongside the schools American Diner Day.

We raised an amazing £437.00 and the children looked amazing

Committee Update

Congratulations to Ellie who is our new Chairperson and takes over the reigns from Jo who has done an amazing job and has stepped to Vice Chair. Thank you Jo!

We also welcome Elena as our new Vice Treasurer, great to have you on board

New Committee ready to go...

A Big thank you to everyone who logged onto zoom for our virtual AGM on Monday. You'll be glad to hear that the committee has been nominated and agreed, we welcome all our new members, Cate, Elena, Chantelle, Carla, Ruth and Janet.

We would also like to thank members who have left us, Gregg, Shona, Chrissy and Terri.

To communicate all of our news we use email through ParentPay and our Facebook Group.

Just search William Law School Association and ask to join, it's that simple.

We ran a "Werrington Our Community" photo competition over the summer and the winners we announced recently.

First Prize went to Morgan for his amazing photo of Cuckoos Hollow bridge. Archie received Second Prize with a great shot of Werrington junction trains. Tesco Werrington were amazing and donated some wonderful prizes so thank you to them.

All children that entered received a School Association Teddy for participating.

All photos will be displayed in the new Community Building

FUNDRAISING UPDATE

Our fundraising has been hit hard in these recent months and we haven't been able to deliver a BBQ or a Christmas Bazaar. However with your amazing support we have funded some fantastic items for school recently...

- £1,080 has been spent on reading books for Year 3 & 4
- £686 was spent on Year 6 Year books
- £3,556 was spent on some fantastic furniture for the new community build

Thank you
